

Raynard Ware

VP of Operations
West Florida Division

Raynard Ware currently serves as the Vice President of Operations at Palms of Pasadena.

He previously served as the Assistant Administrator at Medical Center of Trinity. In this capacity he oversaw multiple ancillary departments, and assisted with service line growth and development efforts.

Raynard entered HCA as an Executive Resident with the Strategy & Innovation (S&I) group in Nashville, TN. As an Executive Resident he worked on various enterprise wide initiatives; such as, Mission Health acquisition integration, freestanding ER assessment and physician alignment market strategy. Prior to HCA, Raynard worked as an Analyst for Triage Consulting Group in Atlanta, GA.

Mr. Ware holds a Bachelors of Arts in Finance from Morehouse College and Masters of Health Systems Administration from Georgetown University.

Raynard serves as an alumni board member for the Bluford Health Leadership Institute, and is a former collegiate athlete.