Pinellas County Home Rule Charter begins itself as a County. Then (it) quickly shapeshifts from it's statehood into "Special law" (2.01), Interlocal Agreements (2.04cnp), establishing Jurisdictional law (2.02b).

It establishes a Transfer of Function and Power (2.04q).

The Charter fortknights a 3rd Party land acquisition (2.04d)

In time and course, the County "no longer" exists as a County Utility. But as a 3rd party jurisdictional Facility; an (independent) Party establishing its own powers of taxation (2.02 b) giving rise to 3rd party law. And 3rd party taxation "Directly" in the form of a levy (2.04r).

The Home rule charter interlocal agreement is a 3rd party Facility, acquisition of property. And is "in reality", a political process of usurpation.

It's a process amounting to the aiding and abetting of a government within a government.

The interlocal nuclear arrangement, of the charter, is an internal political time bomb, claimed as process due in the 14th Amendment.

The charters "internal arrangement" is completely unsound/unwarranted in its development. The county charter and it's interlocal compacts claiming to be just and equitable (2.02b) is artificial, improvident and fails at being legitimate.

Both the county and its subsequent partnerships "thereof" are totally unworthy of heading up a civilized nation.

Both the Utility and Facility "hand in Hand" are in "high seas" default constitutionally....on both sides of the isle.

Furthermore, the County's Private/Public "interlocal" Partnership thereof with the Reclaimed Water Facility have violated my Religious rights (twice) in section 2.02e of the charter, by failing to comply with the availability fee. Thereby, implicating both entities in violation of the law!

CHARTER*

 Editors Note: Printed herein is the county's charter, being Laws of Fla. ch. 80-590, § 1. The charter was effective upon approval at referendum. The charter was approved at an election held on Oct. 7, 1980. Amendments are indicated by parenthetical history notes following amended provisions. The absence of a history note indicates that the provision remains unchanged from the original charter. Obvious misspellings have been corrected without notation. For stylistic purposes, a uniform system of headings, catchlines and citations to state statutes has been used. Additions made for clarity are indicated by brackets.

PREAMBLE

Whereas, the board of county commissioners of Pinellas County, Florida, presently derives its legal authority from a combination of general laws, general laws of local application which apply only to Pinellas County, and special laws, all of which emanate from the legislature of the State of Florida, and

Whereas, under this legal framework the powers, duties and responsibilities of the board of county commissioners are difficult, if not impossible to define, and

Whereas, the only legal method available to the board of county commissioners to define its powers, duties, and responsibilities under the Constitution of the State of Florida is the adoption of a Home Rule Charter, and

Whereas, the board of county commissioners believes that such a charter should be conceived in the interest of cooperation with the municipalities and other governmental units of this county, with the integrity of the rights of the municipalities guaranteed.
