

Eric Dinan
Rescue Division Captain
St. Petersburg Fire Rescue

Eric Dinan is a twenty-seven year veteran of the fire service. He has been a paramedic since 1990 and has operated as such for Gulfport FD, St. Petersburg Fire & Rescue, Bayfront Hospital ED, and Bayflight. Through his extensive fire and EMS career, Eric has held multiple management positions including fire lieutenant, rescue lieutenant, and fire captain. He is currently serving as the EMS Captain for St. Petersburg Fire & Rescue in which he supervises four rescue lieutenants and the daily operation of 22 ALS units in the City of St. Petersburg. Eric is a Florida State Certified Firefighter, Paramedic, Fire Officer 1, and Fire Instructor 1. Eric is also TRT trained and a certified rescue specialist. Eric has spent many years as a preceptor for EMT and Paramedic students within St. Petersburg Fire & Rescue.