Description & Comments

(What is it, any issues found, is there a financial impact to current/next FY, does this contract vary from previous FY, etc.)

This action amends the CRA Plan allowing the City of Clearwater more flexibility in how it administers the Public Amenities Incentive Pool (Pool) by streamlining the approval process for allocations of development entitlements in exchange for developers providing public amenities. The action also updates the potential list of public amenities eligible for development incentives.

There is no fiscal impact of this action.
