Re: Notice of St. Petersburg City Council Public Hearing on Proposed Amendments to the Intown Redevelopment Plan, the Intown Redevelopment Plan.

Dear Mr. Burton,

The public hearing for Ordinance No. 585-H, Amendments to the Intown Redevelopment Plan, has been rescheduled for July 18, 2024, beginning at 3:00 p.m., and will be broadcast on SPTV or accessible at stpete.org/TV.

As required by the Florida Community Redevelopment Act of 1969 (Sec. 163.346, FS), the City of St. Petersburg is notifying taxing authorities whose jurisdictions include the Intown Community Redevelopment Area (CRA), that the St. Petersburg City Council is expected to act on Ordinance No. 585-H, An ordinance adopting amendments to the Intown Redevelopment Plan (IRP) of the City of St. Petersburg (City), increasing the redevelopment program budget in amended Table 2 from $232.354 million to $574.854 million to fund "New Stadium Project" and "Historic Gas Plant Redevelopment Infrastructure" in the IRP west of 8th Street; providing for an extension of the City's TIF contributions through 2042, and allowing modifications to TIF contributions to the IRP Redevelopment Trust Fund by the City and Pinellas County; providing for severability; and providing an effective date.

If you have questions or would like copies of materials related to the IRP amendments, please contact Veronika Slep at (727) 893-7787 or Veronika.Slep@stpete.org.

Sincerely,

Brian Caper, Director
