Pinellas: Vacancies Announced for the Pinellas Public Library Cooperative

Applications are due by 3pm on August 18, 2022.

Applications are being accepted for two appointments to the Pinellas Public Library Cooperative (PPLC) by the Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners.

The purpose of the PPLC is to extend library services to unincorporated areas of the county and of participating municipalities that do not have such services, and to improve library services to citizens of municipalities and of library tax districts that have library services. This is a volunteer position and there is no compensation. Appointees will serve for a term of 3 years beginning October 1, 2022.

Criteria for such appointments are: a) previous experience serving on a board or similar body and the capacity to evaluate a full range of perspectives from library service providers to library users; b) represents the interests of all parties, including the county, the PPLC, members with or without libraries, and patrons; c) have a vision for the future of countywide library services; and d) may not be an employee or member of the governing body of a library.

Meetings of the PPLC Board are generally held on the last Wednesday of the month at the PPLC office in Clearwater but, will also at times be held at other member libraries or alternate locations.

Applications can be found at www.pinellascounty.org/boards. Applications must be received by 3 PM on August 18, 2022. The Board of County Commissioners will review all applications and make its selection at an upcoming meeting.

Please note: All materials submitted to Pinellas County government are subject to the public records law of the State of Florida.
