INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION

IMPORTANT: Failure to obtain a license by the due date or to report a transfer of ownership or loss of a pet may result in issuance of a court citation.

RABIES VACCINATION AND LICENSE-

Take your pet to your veterinarian or Pinellas County Animal Services to obtain a rabies vaccination and license.

LEGAL RESPONSIBILITY - PINELLAS COUNTY CODE CHAPTER 14

RABIES VACCINATION - A current rabies vaccination administered by a licensed veterinarian is required for each dog, cat and ferret over the age of four (4) months. Pinellas County recognizes a one or three year rabies vaccination.

CAT/DOG LICENSE - Licenses expire on expiration date of rabies vaccination if license and vaccine are both 1 year or 3 years. Otherwise, a 1 year license issued on a 3 year vaccine expires 1 year from date of issue or Rabies Revacc date if that occurs sooner. A license shall be renewed on or before the date of expiration. All dogs and cats are required to wear a tag, except as otherwise provided under Section 14-61.

AT LARGE - Dogs and cats, regardless of age, must be under restraint when outside the owner's home.

Original Text Updated for Clarity and to be consistent with Ordinance Any portion of the legal responsibilities subjects the owner, harbinger or keeper to legal penalties. In addition, cats/dogs at large will be impounded and owners charged substantial fees when pets are reclaimed.

VETERINARIANS - Must return all required documentation related to licensure and rabies vaccination certificates to the Department within 30 days

Available at Pinellas County Animal Services only: Have your animal spayed or neutered before current license expires and that next license will be FREE.

Contact your local veterinarian for sterilization of your pets.
