CHAPTER 134 – GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS
Code Section	How it is Changing	Reason for Change
ARTICLE VII – Procedural Requirements for Entering into Development Agreements
134-296. General Requirements for Notices and Hearings	Allows advertising of the required public notice by Internet website per Florida State Statutes	Provides flexibility for how the required public notice is advertised for Development Agreements.

CHAPTER 138 – ZONING
Code Section	How it is Changing	Reason for Change
ARTICLE 1 – In General
138-1. Definitions and Rules of Construction	Adding, amending, and deleting various definitions for Chapter 138.	Adding/amending for clarification and State legislative changes and deleting to remove terms no longer used.
ARTICLE II – Administration and Enforcement
Table 138-77. Review Type and Approval	Allowing all waivers to be Type 1 Path A administrative review.	Enhanced simplicity and efficiency.
	Removing walkthrough site plans.	The term is outdated.
	Adding non-traditional pets and variances per Chapter 158, Floodplain Management as Type 1 Path B DRC review.	Enhanced clarity and internal code consistency.
	Other wording changes.	Enhanced clarity.
Table 138.81.a. Type 1 Reviewing Authorities by Application and Request Type	Same as Table 138-77 above.	Same as above.
Table 138.81.b. Type 1 Review Procedure	Same as Table 138-77 above. Also adding completeness/sufficiency and technical reviews in the DRC results section.	Same as above.
Table 138-85. Type 5 Review	Adding Minor Plats. Changing first level of review from DRC to Staff.	Enhanced flexibility and efficiency.
138-176. Uses Requiring Site Plan Review	Amending language regarding what requires site plan review.	Enhanced flexibility and efficiency. Generally increasing the threshold as to what requires full site plan review.
138-177. Site Plan Approval Procedures	Including a mandatory pre-application meeting as part of Type-1 Path B DRC review of site plans.	The intent is to enhance efficiency by vetting out potential issues earlier in the site plan review process.
138-178. Site Plan Requirements	Requiring a statement from utility servicing companies that the respective utility is available for a proposed development.	This requirement was inadvertently removed during the 2018 Code update.

Code Section	How it is Changing	Reason for Change
Table 138-231.a. Criteria for Granting of Variances, Waivers, and/or Administrative Adjustments	Adjusting (adding and removing) which criteria apply to the review of waiver requests.	Better aligns the criteria that is most relevant to the review of waiver requests, which are primarily technical in nature.
138-235. Variances	Adding language to clarify that variances to specific use standards apply to those standards involving numerical/ dimensional requirements or design criteria.	Clarification.
	Removing redundant floodplain language.	Removes a redundancy.
138-236. Variances from Floodplain Standards	Amending language regarding floodplain variance review.	Removes redundancy and enhances internal code consistency.
138-237. Waivers and Administrative Adjustments	Adding accessory structure building size to the list of dimensional requirements that may be administratively adjusted. Adding language to reflect changes to Table 138-77.	Enhances flexibility and internal code consistency.
138-252. Notice Requirements	Adding language to reflect recent State legislative changes to newspaper notice requirements.	Enhances flexibility and efficiency and reduces costs. Allows for the option to post public hearing notices on the County’s website instead of in the newspaper.
138-253. Notice Types	Same as above plus removing a requirement that mailed notices for public hearings be the sole responsibility of the County.	Same as above and allows for the option to shift to applicants the responsibility of mailing required notices, which is common practice in many other jurisdictions.
ARTICLE III – Zoning and Land Uses
Table 138-355. Table of Uses for Zoning Districts	Changing “Home Occupation” to “Home-Based Business”	Response to a State preemption.
	Combining “Kennel/Pet Care Indoor” and “Kennel/Pet Care Outdoor” as there is little to no difference as to how they are regulated.	Removing redundancy.
	Changing “Land Filling or Excavations of More than 1,000 Cubic Yards” from a Type 2 use to a Type 1 use.	Enhances efficiency and removes redundant work regarding a highly technical and time-consuming review.
