

RESOLUTION NO. 25-___

A RESOLUTION OF THE PINELLAS COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS APPROVING HISTORIC PRESERVATION AD VALOREM TAX EXEMPTION FOR THE PROPERTY LOCATED AT 201 21ST AVENUE NORTH IN THE CITY OF ST. PETERSBURG, A CONTRIBUTING HISTORIC RESOURCE IN THE NORTH SHORE NATIONAL REGISTER HISTORIC DISTRICT; APPROVING EXECUTION OF A HISTORIC PRESERVATION PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION COVENANT; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners recognizes and values historic properties located in the County with protection of and reinvestment in these historic properties being in the public interest and essential to the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of Pinellas County; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Florida have amended Article VII, Section 3(d) of the Florida Constitution to authorize counties and municipalities to allow historic preservation ad valorem tax exemptions for owners of eligible historic properties who make significant improvements; and

WHEREAS, the Florida Legislature has enacted Section 196.1997, Florida Statutes, to govern the allowance of such ad valorem tax exemptions made to eligible historic properties which result from restoration, renovation, or rehabilitation; and

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners adopted the Pinellas County Historic Property Tax Exemption Ordinance (Chapter 118, Article V, Pinellas County Code) in January 1996 providing for ad valorem tax exemptions ten (10) years in duration on improvements made to a designated historic property which result from the restoration, renovation, or rehabilitation of said property in unincorporated areas and in municipalities that have adopted a historic preservation tax exemption ordinance within their jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, the City of St. Petersburg has adopted a historic preservation ad valorem tax exemption ordinance (Section 16.30.070.4 of the City Code) on July 21, 1994, providing its residents with financial incentives to preserve the City's historic properties; and

WHEREAS, the City of St Petersburg is recognized as a Certified Local Government in good standing by the Florida Department of State, Division of Historical Resources as authorized under the National Historic Preservation Act Amendments of 1980 and, therefore, staff with the Urban Planning & Historic Preservation Division for the City of St. Petersburg shall be considered the Local Preservation Office for the purposes of administering the provisions of this ad valorem tax exemption as allowed under 196.1997, Florida Statutes in coordination with the Pinellas County Housing & Community Development Department; and

WHEREAS, the property at 201 21st Avenue North is located within the corporate limits of the City of St. Petersburg and has been designated as a contributing historic resource in the North Shore National Register Historic District as designated by the United States Department of the Interior; and

WHEREAS, the property at 201 21st Avenue North is comprised essentially of grounds, collateral, appurtenances, and improvements more particularly described as being located on the following land parcel:

NORTH BAY HEIGHTS LOT 37

and further identified by the Pinellas County Property Appraiser as parcel number:

18-31-17-60390-000-0370; and

WHEREAS, according to public record this property is presently owned by Ryan Hanewinkel and Megan Hanewinkel; and

WHEREAS, the City of St. Petersburg has reviewed and approved the historic preservation ad valorem tax exemption application (AVT 23-90400003) as submitted by the property owner and has verified that the improvements were completed by the property owner consistent with the application; and

WHEREAS, the St. Petersburg City Council has approved the request for an exemption of the ad valorem taxes levied by the city for a ten (10) year period for one hundred percent (100%) of the value of said improvements made to the property as authorized in a resolution adopted by the City Council on March 6, 2025; and

WHEREAS, the information contained in the staff report and resolution from the City of St. Petersburg has been verified by the Pinellas County Housing & Community Development Department and demonstrates that the improvements made to 201 21st Avenue North meet all criteria for granting the ad valorem tax exemption as described in Chapter 118 of the Pinellas County Code; and

WHEREAS, the exemption of ad valorem taxes levied by Pinellas County shall be for one hundred percent (100%) of the value of said improvements made to the property located at 201 21st Avenue North for a ten (10) year period effective from January 1, 2025 to December 31, 2034.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS FOR PINELLAS COUNTY, FLORIDA, in regular session duly assembled this ___ day of _____ 2025, hereby finds that this application for historic preservation ad valorem tax exemption meets the requirements set forth in Chapter 118, Pinellas County Code and, therefore, approves the ad valorem tax exemption for 201 21st Avenue North, St. Petersburg, a contributing historic resource in the North Shore National Register Historic District as designated by the United States Department of the Interior, for a ten (10) year period at one hundred percent (100%) of the assessed value of improvements made to the property as a result of its restoration, renovation, and rehabilitation, effective as of January 1, 2025, subject to receipt of a certified copy of the recorded covenant within 120 days of the approval of the Board of County Commissioners or said approval shall be void; and hereby approves execution of the historic preservation tax exemption covenant on behalf of the County.

This resolution shall become effective immediately upon its adoption.
