Audrey Henson		X		X		Ms. Henson grew up in St. Petersburg, Florida and her experience growing up in a single-parent, low-income household in St. Pete helped shape the person she has become, and who she aims to assist every day. She started a small construction business and founded a nationally recognized nonprofit that landed her on the Forbes 30 Under 30 list. After graduating from USF Ms. Henson worked in The United States House of Representatives. Shortly after, she founded the incredibly successful nonprofit, College to Congress, designed to help students from low income backgrounds like herself, intern and work in public service. Ms. Henson also started By the Bay Bobcats, a woman-owned and family-operated construction business specializing in excavation, demolition, and hardscaping in Pinellas.
Robin Ruybal		X		X		As a retired Army officer, Ms. Ruybal has over 15 years of experience connecting the largest employer in the free world with qualified, skilled talent and job seekers with military employment and career development opportunities. She is employed in Professional Counseling and currently holds an unrestricted Florida license as a psychotherapist. Ms. Ruybal also currently serves as the Assistant Communications Director for the St. Petersburg Stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, where she assists and explored ways in which the organization can work together with other non-profit organizations to serve the people of Pinellas County by providing food, education and/or financial resources and training opportunities.

Qualification Requirements: Per Florida Statutes Chapter 159.605, the Board of the Authority consists of five members; at least three of which must be knowledgeable in one of the following fields: labor, finance, or commerce.
