Pinellas: Vacancy Announced on the Solid Waste Technical Management Committee

Applications are due by 3pm on May 24, 2022.

Applications are being accepted for one appointment to the Pinellas County Solid Waste Technical Management Committee (TMC) to fulfill a two-year term.

The TMC is a stakeholder group focused on the operations and fiscal health of Pinellas County's solid waste disposal and resource recovery system. The integrated solid waste system is an enterprise fund dependent on revenues generated to support operations, maintenance and capital improvements. The TMC was established in 1982, as an advisory body to review and make recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners concerning rates, formation, implementation and revisions of policies and programs, establishment and location of solid waste disposal and resource recovery system facilities, introduction and integration of new technologies, major equipment major equipment acquisition, selection of consultants, approval and submission of grant applications, and any other solid waste management or operational policies.

The TMC is comprised of thirteen professionals experienced in the field of solid waste collection and disposal, utility management, health, public administration, engineering, accounting, economics, auditing and environmental resources. Eleven members are municipal appointees as specified in Pinellas County Code Part 1, Chapter 106, Article II, Division 2. Sec.106-54 (1). The Board of County Commissioners appoint two members with historical preference for one position to represent the licensed, private solid waste collectors as defined in Article V of the above referenced code.

The TMC meets the fourth Wednesday every other month from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at Pinellas County Solid Waste, located at 3095 114th Avenue North, St. Petersburg or an alternate location (communicated in advance of the meeting). Members are expected to attend all meetings.

Applications can be found at www.pinellascounty.org/boards. Applications must be received by 3 PM on Tuesday, May 24, 2022.

The Board of County Commissioners will review all applications and make its selection at an upcoming meeting.

Please note: All materials submitted to Pinellas County government are subject to the public records law of the State of Florida.
