Thomas Jefferson, in his Religious Freedom Act, argues against those who have "Falsely Assumed" Dominion" over others.

Moses is quoted as saying "Let my People go"!

Yet, oddly, the hypocrisy of the Declaration of Independence set in motion a Long Train of Usurpations, Perfidy and Works of Death. It Declares the Absolute Destruction of All Ages and Conditions, intending to Reduce us into Absolute Despotism.

The Constitution is being used as a form of Capture. Article 1 section 8 Clause 11 of our current Constitution states to Capture both Land and Water. And, as based on the Reclaimed Water Variance Application, such Capture (now) includes the Capture of my Religion too, imagine that.

Which as further Equated in the 14th Amendment/as Deduced in the Birthing of Water Jurisdictions the Religion (in Particular) that is being Captured is Christianity, as process thereof, as written therein.

Now, having once been Captured themselves; based on the circumstance that they were once themselves Captured, Moses cried to God and to the World to "Let his people go". The 10 Commandments were written in stone and handed to Moses establishing such freedom.

Now using such freedom, sadly, I find the Free System of Laws written in the Declaration of Independence stands for the freedom to Eat us out of our Subsistence, it stands for the freedom to commit murder, holding a Constituted Truth that is Not Rooted in Reality, as its constituted process.

When George Washington in his Farewell (to Christianity) Address states to "Indirectly Undermine that which cannot be Directly Overthrown", is he speaking of Undermining the Water Supply as a way to Overthrow Christianity, using Water as a "Power of the Earth" as Declared? Washington, further claiming to be of "Greatest Rankness and Truly ones Worst Enemy".

Hypocritically, has Thomas Jefferson Falsely assumed Dominion over Christianity using Water as its "Weapon of Choice"? intending to Vanquish Christianity as based on Federalist Paper #2. "Controlling Mans Subsistence as its way of Controlling Mans Will" as based on Federalist paper #79?

It appears to me that such constituted Liberty, Freedom and Happiness, as Declared, is based on the Undistinguished intent to Murder Christianity, based on such "Fully Equated and Vetted" Text, violating the "High Seas" set forth by the 10 Commandments stemming from the conditions agreed to by Moses.

Constitutionally violating/ Deaf to "Jesus's" Stand on Water, as Declared!
