DAVID BALLAD GEDDIS JR

BOCC May 8, 2018

Last meeting, Adjenda Item #17, the county proposed to accept bids and begin selling rights/ timber rights to begin logging the Cross bar property. The Crossbar property is a wetland, that serves the underlying well field, that supplies us water.

What purpose does the county have "in"? And why does the county, find it necessary to harvest a wetland that services our water supply?

Our aquifer, Our well-fields are dependent on our wetlands!

Is the harvesting of the Native Pine or Cypress trees a necessary measure? Or just an opportunity for the county to make money?

The wetlands "availing" our aquifer is consecrated ground!

Electing to harvest timber "surrounding" such ground is to inadvertently desecrate the wetland that supplies us our water.

To weaken the wetland, is to thus, "indirectly undermine" the underlying water resource that lies beneath it. Does George Washington in his Farewell Address, proscribe this act of sacrilege?

Is "Laying Bare" the ground of our wetlands a political objective?

Many of our God given wetlands have already been reduced to thistles.

What is the end game of this political endeavor in regards to the subsistence of our water supply, as based on Federalist paper #79.

What powers in/of the state are not dis-allowed by the 10th Amendment? Is the 10th Amendment in support of an "elaborate process of usurpation", By and For those whom "distinctly" chosen to elect, to establish themselves as water Despots, ~~tyrants as fact to a candid world. As powers of absolute~~ "jurisdictionally" claimed as process due under the 14th Amendment, ~~Declaring themselves to be divine and provident,?~~

Thomas Jefferson speaks of Physics and Geometry, how is this board adding to this equation? How is this administration, to guarantee that the "selling of logging rights" doesn't take away from our children's future viability to access their essential water supply?

Is logging of wetlands a necessary measure or just an elective, an election "as of choice" in Article 2 section 1, as of "within oneself" in the 12th Amendment? A three-party system, Appointing their own election of officers in Fed paper #9.

Is the purpose of logging our wetlands, A wartime activity used against the "unaware" civilian population, in Article 1 section 10. ~~seen as presentiment in the 5th Amendment?~~ Is this constitution used within itself as a "larger than life playwright" to and for the conquest/the capture of our water supply as in Article 1 section 8. Giving Rise to Fact in Article 3 section 2, birthing Hamilton's second constitutional undertaking, based on water?

~~Seen as (this) and (this) constitution in Article 6 of this Constitution!~~

Is this board intent on re-vegetating/replanting the wetland with genetically modified seedings, after the removal of that which was virgin?

WATER JURISDICTIONS RISING AS FACT IN ARTICLE 3 SECTION 2

The definition of a confederate republic seems simply to be an assemblage of societies, or an association of two or more states into one state. The extent, modifications, and objects of the federal authority are mere matters of discretion. So long as the separate organization of the members be not abolished; so long as it exists, by a constitutional necessity, for local purposes, though it should be in perfect subordination to the general authority of the union, it would still be, in fact and in theory, an association of states, or a confederacy. The proposed Constitution, so far from implying an abolition of the State governments, makes them constituent parts of the national sovereignty, by allowing them a direct representation in the Senate, and leaves in their possession certain exclusive and very important portions of sovereign power. This fully corresponds, in every rational import of the terms, with the idea of a federal government.

In the Lycian confederacy, which consisted of twenty-three cities or republics, the largest were entitled to three votes in the common council, those of the middle class to two, and the smallest to one. The common council had the appointment of all the judges and magistrates of the respective cities. This was certainly the most delicate species of interference in their internal administration, for if there be any thing that seems exclusively appropriated to the local jurisdictions, it is the appointment of their own officers. Yet Montesquieu, speaking of this association, says: "Were I to give a model of an excellent Confederate Republic, it would be that of Lycia." Thus we perceive that the distinctions insisted upon were not within the contemplation of this enlightened civilian, and we shall be led to conclude, that they are the novel refinements of an erroneous theory!

IS IT IN HUMAN NATURE FOR ONE MAN TO CONTROL THE SUBSTANCE OF ANOTHER IN ORDER TO CONTROL THAT MAN'S WILL.

Alexander Hamilton

The Federalist Papers

Federalist No. 79

The Judiciary Department Continued From McLEAN'S Edition, New York.

Author: Alexander Hamilton

To the People of the State of New York: NEXT to permanency in office, nothing can contribute more to the independence of the judges than a fixed provision for their support. The remark made in relation to the President is equally applicable here. In the general course of human nature, A POWER OVER A MAN'S SUBSISTENCE AMOUNTS TO A POWER OVER HIS WILL. And we can never hope to see realized in practice, the complete separation of the judicial from the legislative power, in any system which leaves the former dependent for pecuniary resources on the occasional grants of the latter. The enlightened friends to good government in every State, have seen cause to lament the want of precise and explicit precautions in the State constitutions on this head. Some of these indeed have declared that PERMANENT [1] salaries should be established for the judges; but the experiment has in some instances shown that such expressions are not sufficiently definite to preclude legislative evasions. Something still more positive and unequivocal has been evinced to be requisite. The plan of the convention accordingly has provided that the judges of the United States "shall at STATED TIMES receive for their services a compensation which shall not be DIMINISHED during their continuance in office."

This, all circumstances considered, is the most eligible provision that could have been devised. It will readily be understood that the fluctuations in the value of money and in the state of society rendered a fixed rate of compensation in the Constitution inadmissible. What might be extravagant to-day, might in half a century become penurious and inadequate. It was therefore necessary to leave it to the discretion of the legislature to vary its provisions in conformity to the variations in circumstances, yet under such restrictions as to put it out of the power of that body to change the condition of the individual for the worse.
