Description & Comments

(What is it, any issues found, is there a financial impact to current/next FY, does this contract vary from previous FY, etc.)

This contract is an annual expenditure that is included in the yearly appropriations to the Pinellas County Sheriff Office (PCSO) as part of the budget process. The contract is for law enforcement services at environmentally sensitive lands, preserves, and waterways, including Brooker Creek Preserve, Weedon Island Preserve, and the waters in and around Ft. De Soto Park and Shell Key Island. This area covers more than 15,940 acres. This expenditure is not part of the PCR annual appropriation, but is included in the request from PCSO.

This contract is consistent with the FY17 Budget submission and an amendment will not be needed.
