BOCC PINELLAS December 13, 2016

In 1801, the Danbury Baptist Association gave notice to Thomas Jefferson in a letter titled "The Wall of Separation".

In this letter, "The Wall of Separation", The Danbury Baptists Association accuses Thomas Jefferson; (stating) "if those, (if ye) who seek after power and gain under the pretence of government & religion, should reproach their fellow men....as an enemy of religion, he will not assume the prerogative, he dares not to make laws to govern the Kingdom of Christ.

The Danbury Baptist Association warns Thomas Jefferson of a "sincere" pre-determined opposition (of theirs) against ^{HE} those who wish to rise to wealth and importance on the poverty and subjection of the people, ^{DANBURY} stating that "Religion is to be considered the first object of legislation".

The Danbury Baptist Association saw something (pretentious) in Thomas Jefferson's Religious Freedom Act, "in actuality" Jefferson's Act (it) serves as a Departure of Almighty God.

And the liberty for which (it) stands

Birthing (Its) jurisdiction in the 14th Amendment is legislated on Thomas Jefferson's ^{DEPARTURE AND} reproach as an enemy of Almighty God.

The 14th Amendment grants privileges and immunity's, (it) grants power and gain, (it) gives rise to men of wealth and importance on the poverty and subjection of the people, and reproaches their fellow men as an enemy of religion, placing in bondage the Kingdom of Christ beginning with the reclaimed water availability fee, followed by the water district levy.

Jefferson was a bigoted, pretentious man, a spirit of hypocrisy and the Danbury Baptist Association saw (it).....as was Madison, Hamilton, Lincoln, Roosevelt, Bush, Clinton, Reagan.....as some of your stake holdings are proving to be!

Among the many millions in America and Europe who rejoice in your Election to office; we embrace the first opportunity which we have enjoy'd in our collective capacity, since your Inauguration, to express our great satisfaction, in your appointment to the chief Magistracy in the United States. RC (DLC); in Dodge's hand, signed by all; at head of text: "The address of the Danbury Baptist Association in the State of Connecticut; assembled October 7th 1801 To Thomas Jefferson Esqr: President of the united States of America"; endorsed by TJ as received 30 Dec. and so recorded in SJL.

A Baptist elder in Connecticut, Nehemiah Dodge began his career in the ministry in Hampton in 1788 before moving on to Southington. He published many tracts and orations and fought for disestablishment. About 1820, upon becoming a Universalist, he served as pastor of the Universalist Church in New London. Stephen S. Nelson was a graduate of Rhode Island College and moved from Hartford to Mt. Pleasant, New York, in 1801 to become principal of an academy (William G. McLoughlin, New England Dissent 1630-1833: The Baptists and the Separation of Church and State, 2 vols. [Cambridge, Mass., 1971], 2:930, 987, 1008).

OUR COLLECTIVE CAPACITY: the Danbury Baptist Association was organized in 1790 and consisted of twenty-six churches, mostly in western Connecticut, but including three churches in eastern New York. At its October 1800 meeting, the association initiated a petition movement to redress the grievances of the dissenting minority against the Congregationalist majority in
