ROLL CALL - 9:30 A.M.

Present: 7 - Chair Brian Scott, Vice-Chair Dave Eggers, Commissioner René Flowers, Commissioner Chris Latvala, Commissioner Vince Nowicki, Commissioner Kathleen Peters, and Commissioner Chris Scherer

Others Present: Barry A. Burton, County Administrator; Jewel White, County Attorney; Jeanette Phillips, Finance Division Chief Deputy Director; and Katie Poviones, Senior Board Records Specialist, Deputy Clerk

Deviating from the agenda, Chair Scott requested a motion to add a proclamation in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

A motion was made by Commissioner Flowers, seconded by Commissioner Latvala, that the proclamation be added to the agenda. The motion carried by the following vote:

Aye: 7 - Chair Scott, Vice-Chair Eggers, Commissioner Flowers, Commissioner Latvala, Commissioner Nowicki, Commissioner Peters, and Commissioner Scherer

Later in the meeting, Chair Scott read a proclamation recognizing January 20, 2025, as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day; whereupon, Pastor Bell provided brief comments.

INVOCATIONPLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE*COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR*31. County Administrator ReportsPost-Hurricane Recovery Updates

Deviating from the order of the agenda, Mr. Burton indicated that the County remains under a State of Local Emergency; and that staff will provide updates regarding multiple recovery operations; whereupon, he briefly discussed various sources of hurricane relief funding awarded to the County, noting that recovery remains the top priority.

Emergency Management Director Cathie Perkins provided an update regarding the number of people who have applied for individual assistance through the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), noting that while the registration period has ended, there is a 30-day grace period during which individuals may still apply for assistance; whereupon, she discussed various resources which have been provided to residents, including FEMA's Transitional Sheltering Assistance Program and the status of several ongoing and anticipated programs and resources.

Responding to comments and queries by the members, Ms. Perkins provided information regarding Elevate Florida, the number of applications received for individual assistance through FEMA, requirements related to site meetings, and placement of travel trailers; whereupon, in response to a query by Commissioner Scott, Community Development Planning Division Manager Bruce Bussey briefly discussed the anticipated timeframe for applicants to receive funds from the Pinellas County Income Eligible Hurricane Home Repair Program.

Deputy County Administrator Jill Silverboard provided an update related to debris management, noting that debris collection from the public right-of-way has been completed in all zones; that challenges remain regarding debris removal from private property locations; and that the locations are currently under FEMA review; whereupon, she discussed sand renourishment efforts and County parks that remain closed.

Responding to comments and queries by the members, and with input from Mr. Burton, Ms. Silverboard provided clarifying information related to beach access along Gulf Boulevard and communications regarding construction and demolition debris. With input from Mr. Burton, Ms. Silverboard provided additional information regarding ongoing issues with debris management in private mobile home parks, including necessary approvals from FEMA and private ownership, resources for residents seeking assistance concerning pending requests, and the potential for action through Code Enforcement.

Substantial Damage Assessments and Permitting Updates

Referring to a PowerPoint presentation, Building and Development Review Services (BDRS) Director Kevin McAndrew provided an overview of the substantial damage assessment (SDA) process, noting that staff is working to ensure compliance with both the Florida Building Code and FEMA requirements; and that the process is primarily in the reassessment stage at this time; whereupon, he briefly discussed the components of the substantial damage determination letter, emphasizing efforts by staff to contact residents and provide educational information.

Responding to a query by Commissioner Peters, Mr. McAndrew pointed out that the substantial damage determination letter highlights the reassessment option and provided details related to temporary residency and the safe home inspection process; whereupon, with input by Mr. Burton, Mr. McAndrew responded to queries by Commissioner Latvala and discussed various topics, including the number and status of reassessment requests received, resources to assist with the completion of reassessment applications, and compliance with the Florida Building Code and FEMA guidelines.

Mr. McAndrew, with input by Mr. Burton, provided information regarding FEMA's Substantial Damage Estimator Tool, reviewed available options related to substantially damaged and non-substantially damaged structures, and noted that the reassessment process remains as staff's highest priority; whereupon, he discussed optional and required documents related to completing a reassessment application and indicated that a process has been established for contractors and homeowners to communicate directly with BDRS via phone or email.

Responding to queries and comments by Commissioners Eggers and Flowers, Mr. McAndrew provided information related to structures which have not yet received substantial damage determination letters and details regarding the properties which will be issued a letter, the ability to proceed with permitting, and private actual cash value (ACV) appraisals; whereupon, Pinellas County Property Appraiser Mike Twitty discussed the role of the Property Appraiser's Office related to the SDA process and provided additional details regarding private ACV appraisals.

In response to comments and queries by Commissioners Flowers, Eggers, and Scherer, Messrs. McAndrew and Twitty discussed numerous topics, including the following:

- Inspection requirements related to reassessment
- Substantial improvement
- Lookback period and its relation to substantial damage
- Insurance and additional assessments
- Substantial damage determination letters
- County Floodplain Ordinance

During discussion, Mr. Twitty emphasized that the deadline to apply for the partial property tax refund is March 1.

Responding to queries by Commissioners Peters, Eggers, and Scott, and with input by Mr. Burton, Mr. McAndrew provided information regarding several topics, including permitting prior to receiving a substantial damage determination letter, possibility for elimination of the lookback period, and transmission of data from the state-furnished vendor, Tidal Basin, to municipalities.

Mr. McAndrew provided details regarding the reassessment workflow process and highlighted resources and current data related to the SDA process; whereupon, he briefly discussed permitting related to condominiums and townhouses.

Tri-County BCC meeting

Later in the meeting, Mr. Burton indicated that the Tri-County Board of County Commissioners meeting will be held on January 17 at Ruth Eckerd Hall.
