The legal notice was scheduled for the Local B Section and moved to the A section without my knowledge. The charge for the notice remains the same, and I will ask pagination why the ad was moved. My thoughts are they needed to move ads around to accommodate news.

Jim,
This was a computer glitch. The ad number is automatically changed in the system but for some reason this did not take place. Because the ad is in its complete stage the system cannot correct itself.
The number in the top left corner of the affidavit is what matters, however, I have manually pasted over the incorrect number and enclosed a revised affidavit for your records.
