Jim,

All I can say is the Header for Item A B and C are set justified type.
If they were all flush left there would not be a spacing issue.

Would you like them all set flush left or just item C.

James,

The map in the Friday legal notice was very small and difficult to read. I would recommend that when we have large legal notices that we consider a larger ad so that the map is more legible.

Good Morning, Deirdre.....

Board Records and the authorizing Department have reviewed Ad 270048 and the following Corrections are necessary:

1. In the Section C Header: Please remove the word " to " between AMENDING and THE PINELLAS
This header line should read: C. PROPOSED ORDINANCES AMENDING THE PINELLAS COUNTY COMPREHENSIVE PLAN
2. In the paragraph near the bottom, beginning with " The proposed amendments to the....." – the following text needs to be added:
".....Pinellas County Land Development Code and to the...." As shown on the attached PDF file marked #2.
This line should read:
" The proposed amendments to the Pinellas County Land Development Code and to the Pinellas County Comprehensive Plan can be inspected...."

Once these corrections are implemented, please provide a final proof for review.
