Sandra was elected to City Council in March 2002, and re-elected in 2006, 2010 and elected as Mayor in 2012 and re-elected in 2014, 2016, 2018, 2020 and 2022.

Service

Sandy has been a resident of Pinellas Park since 1968 and has been very active in our community. She has served as an ambassador for the Pinellas Park / Gateway Chamber of Commerce and as Chair for the Suncoast League of Cities. She is a member of the Mayor's Council of Pinellas County, a member of the Tampa Bay Regional Planning Council and sits on the Board of Directors for the Florida League of Mayors. Tampa Bay Business Journal recognized Sandy's commitment to public service at its 2008 Business Woman of the Year Awards Ceremony. Sandy has served as a mentor to students at Skyview Elementary School and has assisted with fundraising activities for the Pinellas Park Police Explorers Post Number 912.

Community Work

Sandy has been involved with Community Spirit in the Park, a non-profit organization that purchases, maintains and installs holiday decorations along the City's main roads, including lighted Christmas decorations and American flag displays. Sandy was appointed to the Pinellas Park Board of Adjustment in 1999 and served until her election to Council. She has received recognition from the Chamber of Commerce for her efforts in economic development and from the United States Marine Corps for volunteer services during Operation Desert Storm and attributes her sense of community and interest in public service to her father, former Mayor Cecil Bradbury and her mother, Margaret.
