We won't know the total cost until an applicant is selected and a budget put together. The total grant funding available is $1.2 M. I can list that as total, but match is required, but undetermined.

Hi Elisa,

I noticed that the total cost of the project is $0.00, while the amount being requested is $1,200,000.00, as well as there being a match, but that listed as $0.00. The total cost of the project is supposed to be the amount requested plus the match amount (if there is a match). If not, then just the amount being requested. Would you please go back and fill this in so that the correct amounts may show?
