Pinellas: Vacancy announced on South St. Petersburg Community Redevelopment Area (CRA) Citizen Advisory Committee

Applications Due by 3 p.m. April 22, 2026

Applications are being accepted for one vacancy on the South St. Petersburg Community Redevelopment Area (CRA) Citizen Advisory Committee. The selected applicant will fill a current term set to expire January 31, 2027, but will be eligible to reapply to serve another term.

The South St. Petersburg Community Redevelopment Area (CRA) Citizen Advisory Committee was created by an interlocal agreement between Pinellas County and the City of St. Petersburg to establish the framework for establishing and administering a redevelopment plan within the identified boundaries. The CRA Advisory Committee advises the Community Redevelopment Agency for the South St. Petersburg CRA on the proposed community redevelopment plan and any amendments thereto, and to advise the Community Redevelopment Agency on issues and policies within the South St. Petersburg CRA.

The South St. Petersburg CRA Citizen Advisory Committee is comprised of nine members who must be residents, business and/or property owners or other community stakeholders within the South St. Petersburg Community Redevelopment Area. The mayor of the City of St. Petersburg appoints six Citizen Advisory Committee members subject to confirmation by the St. Petersburg City Council. The Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners appoints three Citizen Advisory Committee members.

Meetings are held the first Tuesday of every other month at 5:15 p.m. at St. Petersburg City Hall. More information about the South St. Petersburg Community Redevelopment Citizen Advisory Committee can be found at <https://pinellas.gov/boards-councils-and-committees/south-st-petersburg-community-redevelopment-area-citizen-advisory-committee/>.

Applications are due by 3 p.m. on Wednesday, April 22, 2026. The application can be found at www.pinellas.gov/boards.

Please note: All materials submitted to Pinellas County government are subject to the public records law of the state of Florida.
