

WHERE DISCOVERY SHINES

USFSP UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTH FLORIDA
ST. PETERSBURG

2018-2020

Martin Tadlock

Regional Chancellor

Who We Are

- Pinellas County's only public research university
- 5,000 students
- Largest undergraduate majors:
 - Biology
 - Accounting
 - Health Sciences
 - Psychology
- 19:1 student faculty ratio
- 27 undergraduate majors with 35 concentrations
- 18 graduate programs

Inclusive Community Research & Innovation Sustainability

Inclusive Community

Inclusive Community: Access, Inclusion, and Success

Pipeline and scholarships

- Emerging Scholars
For students from Pinellas County Schools with outstanding leadership potential
- Chancellor's Leadership Council
For students with outstanding leadership credentials
- St. Petersburg Scholars
For students delayed admission to USFSP

Pinellas Access to Higher education (PATHe)

Will include:

- PATHe Counselors (~$250k)
- FUSE scholarships ($40k)
- Blue/Gold scholarship ($40k)

Inclusive Community: Local Partnerships

A commitment to citizen scholarship and community engagement

Partnerships with several Pinellas County Schools:

- Boca Ciega High: Year 3
- Gibbs High: Year 1
- Lakewood High: Year 1
- St. Pete Scholars: Year 1

St. Petersburg Innovation District

- Mentorships
- Opportunities to promote life and health science research

Internships

- Kate Tiedemann College of Business – internships soared from 12 in 2015 to 109 in 2018

Inclusive Community: Global Partnerships

Creating global opportunities

- Developing affordable domestic and international immersion experiences
- Increasing study abroad experiences
- Drawing international students and faculty to our campus
- Partnerships with schools in Malaysia and China

Research & Innovation

WHERE DISCOVERY SHINES

USFSP

UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTH FLORIDA
ST. PETERSBURG

Research & Innovation

Investing in and expanding research infrastructure

- New STEAM INQ laboratory opening in College of Education Oct. 20.
- First comprehensive biography of tennis legend and civil rights icon Arthur Ashe published by Dr. Ray Arsenault
- Dr. Jennifer O'Brien awarded $2.7-million NIH grant on preventing Alzheimer's through cognitive training
- Launching the Joint Institute for Gulf of Mexico Studies
- Created the Merrill Lynch Wealth Management Center

Proposed new academic programs

LAUNCHING IN 2019-2020	Sustainability Studies	Bachelors
	Mathematics: Computational & Applied	Bachelors
COMING SOON	Environmental Chemistry	Bachelors
	Secondary STEM Education	Masters
ON THE HORIZON	Nursing at USFSP with USFT
	Engineering related at USFSP with USFT
	Hospitality at USFSP with USFSM
	Insurance at USFSP with USFSM
	Management Science at USFSP with USFSM
	Computer Science
	Visual and Performing Arts programs
Doctoral programs

Leaders In Sustainability

Florida's sustainability campus

- Integrating sustainability across colleges and disciplines
- Collaborating with student organizations to fund sustainability initiatives
- Becoming carbon neutral by 2050
 - Solar array/battery on USFSP parking garage – partnership with Duke Energy

Fast Facts

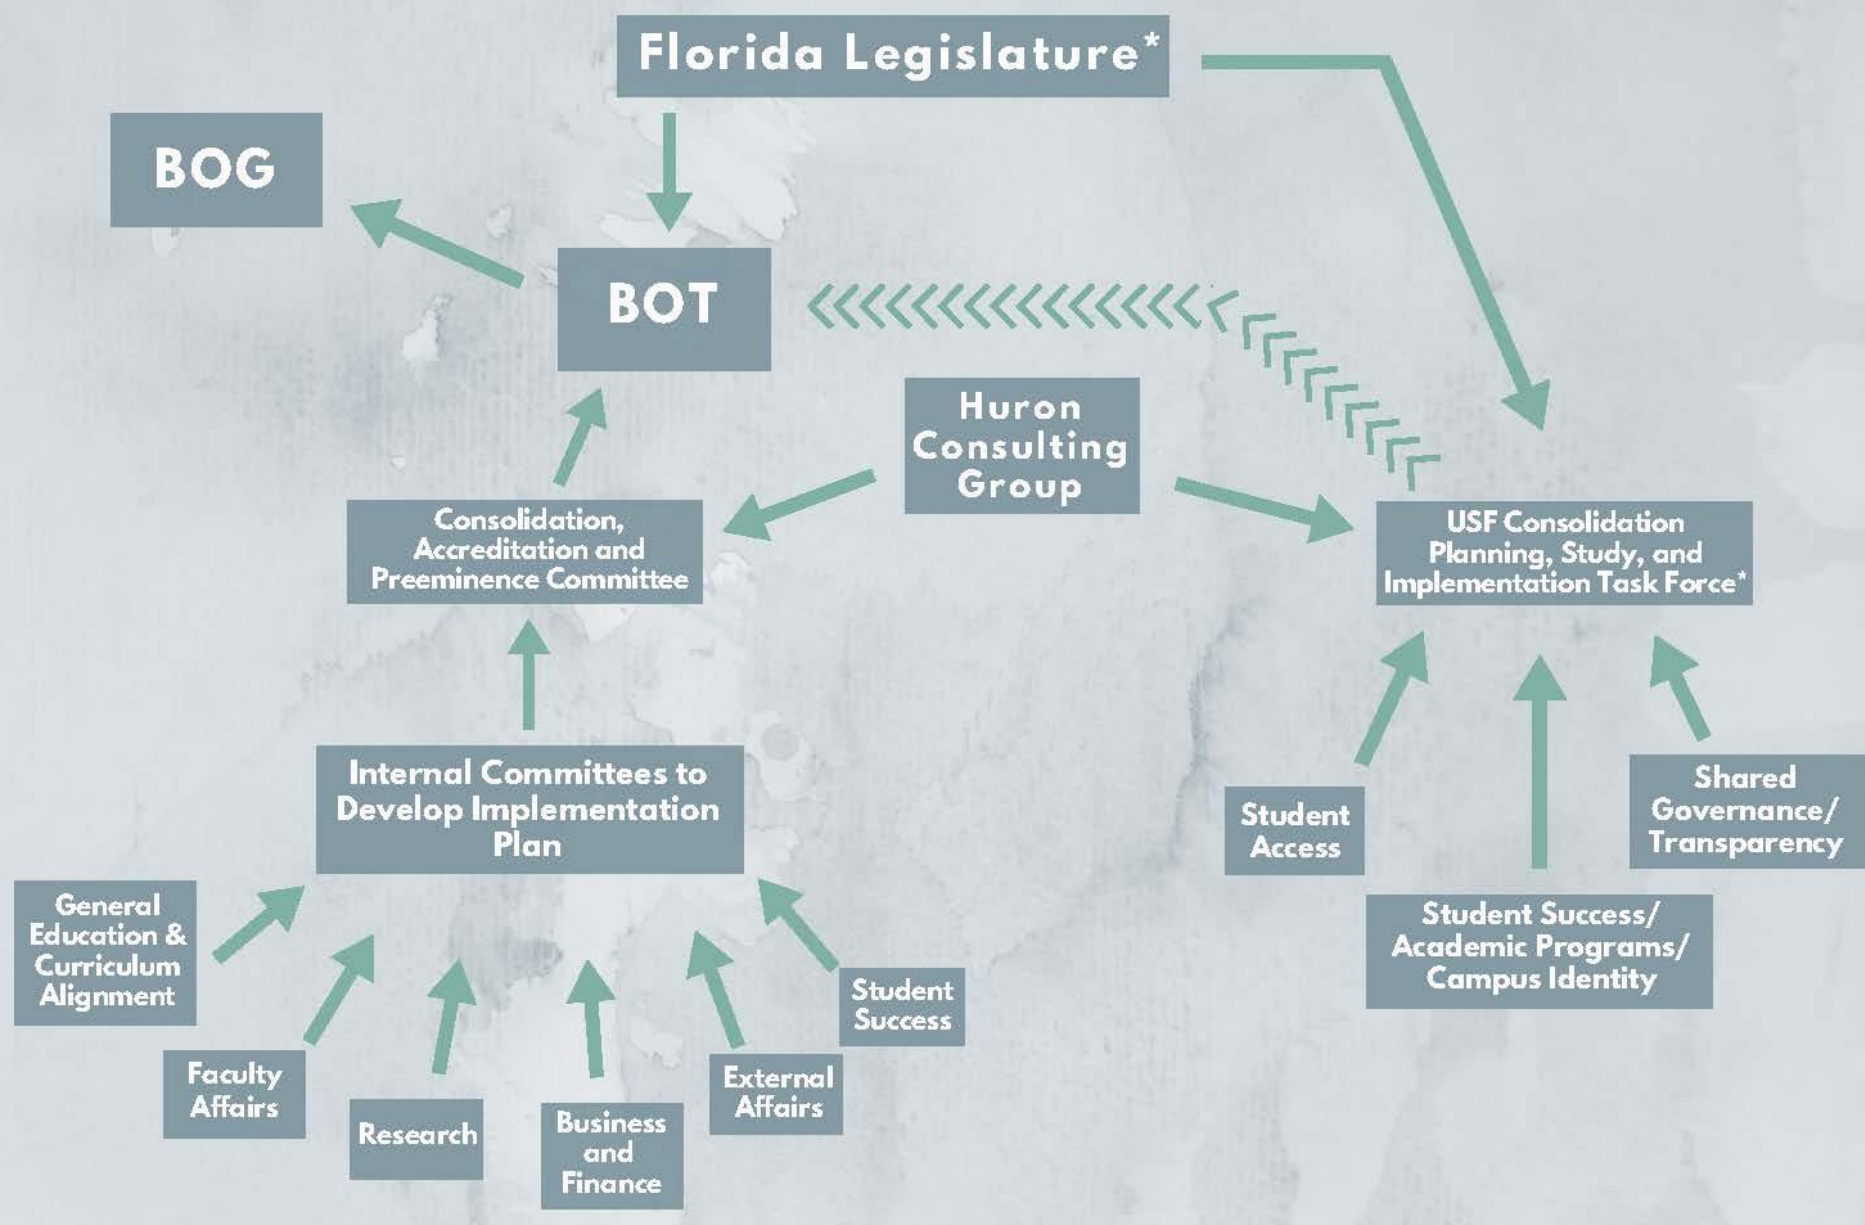

- New residence hall scheduled to open in Fall 2020
- 10% increase in fall to fall retention (2016-17)
- $420,000 reduction in textbook costs to students
- Online MBA Program ranked #30 in the nation and #3 in Florida by U.S. News and World Report
- USFSP the first or second choice for 93% of 2017-18 incoming class of first-year students

Consolidation

- Discussions ongoing at multiple levels
 - Still awaiting recommendations regarding College of Arts and Sciences and PhD programs
- Oct. 18: Student Success/Academic Programs/Campus Identity Subcommittee Hearing at USFSP
- Consolidation Task Force will make recommendations to Board of Trustees in February
- Board of Trustees will submit plan to Board of Governors in March

USF Accreditation Consolidation Structure

*The University of South Florida Consolidation Planning Study, and Implementation Task Force is established pursuant to Section 1004.335 (1), Florida Statute.

WHERE DISCOVERY SHINES

Connect with us:

Facebook.com/gousfsp

Twitter: @usfsp

Instagram: usfstpetersburg