WITNESSETH

Section 10. Controlling Law; Members of County and Court Not Liable

All covenants, stipulations, obligations, and agreements of the County and the Court contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to be covenants, stipulations, obligations, and agreements of the County and the Court respectively to the full extent authorized by the Constitution and the laws of the State of Florida. No covenant, stipulation, obligation, or agreement contained herein shall be deemed to be a covenant, stipulation, obligation, or agreement of any present or future member of the governing body or agent or employee of the County or the Court in its, his, her, or their individual capacity and neither the members of the governing body of the County or the Court nor any official executing this Agreement shall be personally liable or be subject to any accountability by reason of the County or the Court executing this Agreement or any act pertaining thereto.

The party in breach shall have opportunity to cure within this thirty (30) day time period. Said notice shall be delivered by certified mail, return receipt requested, or in person with proof of delivery. Each party may at its discretion waive any breach by the other party in writing, but such waiver shall not constitute a waiver of any future breaches, including breaches of the same type.
