After experiencing an unequivocally inefficient form of government, it's time to deliberate a new constitution. Hamilton, in the 1st sentence of Federalist paper #1, abridges into a second constitution.

IS CRIMINAL ~~FOR~~ ~~FAILING INFRASTRUCTURE~~ IS A LONDS GUILD maybe the school board should answer you.

This constitution (our current constitution) is being used as a Hold, a medium, a Useful Art, as a "Bill of Attainder" to Uniformly Bankrupt the water supply and to establish a DeFacto government "jurisdictionally" under the 14th Amendment (according to the Harris Act) stemming back to Mid-Evil England (King Edward VI) and his separation from the Vatican, denouncing the Pope of Rome.

Which is recognized (today) in the Reclaimed Water "variance" as the literal owing of religious convictions. ~~Thereby~~, vanquishing Christianity.

The Declaration of Independence (serving as hindsight/as self evident of Hamilton's first constitution) clearly states this constitution to be the present history of the King of Great Brittan, as the legislation of the British Brethren, ~~Calling this act~~, the birthing of water jurisdictions, (Hamilton's second future political standing) to be unwarranted, as totally unworthy of heading up a civilized nation!

In order to be government "constitutional" legitimacy, lack of fraudulence is required in the becoming of law.

Furthermore, Resolution 95-286 IV (C-2) states that the county "in absolute" has been sold!

As purchased, the Water District, as formulated, as aggregated, ~~as promulgated~~, as built-up, is based in political discourse, governmental transgression, is a "High Seas" Constitutional counterfeit operation. And is defined as Artificial in statute 373.019(15).

This internal shapeshifting of fortknighted political power; counterfeited under a constitution that holds "no reality or face", as Districted, ~~as coined~~, ^{AS COINED - WORKING BOTH SIDES OF A COIN OF FRAUDULENCE} shall be repealed, replaced, "thereof", in respect, of Christian values. And shall be beholding to restoring the ~~Dignity of Almighty God and the Grace~~ contained within our life giving water supply.

Your stakeholdings (as suspended) are subject to total forfeiture.

THIS COMMISSION HAS SPENT MORE TIME TALKING ABOUT "BASEBALL" IN THIS MEETING TODAY, THAN THEY HAVE ABOUT REPLACING AND RE-BUILDING OUR WATER DELIVERY SYSTEM IN OVER TEN YEARS OF MY PROTEST.

This alternative definition of existing use was and is very controversial, primarily among those who did not favor the enactment of property rights legislation. [59] In fact the definition stitches together long-standing concepts which are not usually linked together and recasts them in a new legal context. [60] Aside from its merit on legal and policy grounds, this provision was central to building a broad base of political support for passage of the legislation. POWER POLITICS

STATUTE SKETCHING TAUTOLOGY

GRASS ROOTS MOVEMENT DEED

The first drafts of the Harris Act were considered by some legislators and participants in the working group to offer little or nothing to the landowners whose long-standing vested rights with regulatory agencies had propelled the property rights movement. [61] Because government is already equitably estopped from impairing vested rights to existing uses, these legislators and landowners viewed the early drafts of the Harris Act, which protected vested rights and an existing use defined only as an actual, present use or activity on the land, as offering only an additional item on the menu of remedies already available to landowners. [62] Further, these legislators and landowners recognized that government-only rarely deprives a landowner of the actual, present use of land, halts an activity being conducted on an owner's land, or seeks to infringe on a vested right. [63] Accordingly, for the Harris Act to be meaningful to landowners, it had to offer a remedy in some circumstances in which regulatory permission was denied for the conversion of land to a future use in which the owner's rights were not otherwise protected.

VESTED RIGHTS - CAN'T BE TAKEN BY A THIRD PARTY, WHILE STILL GOVT OWNED / OPERATED

As a legal concept for an existing land use, the alternative definition is well-grounded in the law of eminent domain. [64] In a condemnation proceeding, valuation of the property is based upon the highest and best use. [65] The highest and best use is not limited to those uses authorized under the existing land development regulations. [66] If on the date of taking there is a reasonable probability of a land use change, that probability may be taken into account in determining valuation. [67] An important factor in determining the highest and best use of property is whether the property is suitable for that proposed future use. [68] However, such a future use may not be wholly speculative. [69]

UNDER HANDED

Seen in the context of the law of eminent domain, there are circumstances in which a prospective future use may be considered an existing land use and therefore compensable. That is at the heart of the Harris Act's alternative definition of an existing land use, which reaches some future uses. Altogether, it is a remarkably conventional idea in a legal system which has embraced the doctrine of future interests in land since medieval England. [70]

MARKET ANALYSIS

The proof necessary to establish that a future land use is reasonably foreseeable could come from such authorities as an adopted local comprehensive plan, local land development regulations, or a credible appraisal which relies at least in part on nonexisting but reasonably expected future uses. [71] Particularly relevant would be evidence of the owner's ability or inability to secure financing based on these documents. [72] The comprehensive plan and land development regulations adopted by the relevant local government also would have a bearing on the suitability and compatibility issues.

Transcript of Declaration of Independence (1776)

IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, -- That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. -- Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harrass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures MILITIA?
 He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power.
 He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation: For Quartering large bodies of armed troops among us; For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States;
 For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world:
 For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent:
 For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury:
 For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences
 For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:
 For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:
 For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever!
 He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us;
 He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.
 He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.
 He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.
 He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

NOTHING SACRED ABOUT BLASPHEM!

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince whose character is thus marked, by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.
 Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. (They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends;
 We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.
