Qualification Requirements:

The PCCLB consists of 21 members, including one consumer member. The state special act establishing the board specifies that the consumer representative should be a resident and citizen of Pinellas County and that they are “not and never have been a member or practitioner of any closely-related trade or profession” related to the construction industry.

Appointments are made by the Chair of the Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners. All appointed members serve two-year terms, with half of said members commencing their terms on Oct. 1 of odd-numbered years and the other half of said members commencing their terms on Oct. 1 of even-numbered years. Members may serve multiple terms.
