

Jacob N. M. Eastman, MD

10000 Bay Pines Blvd • Bay Pines, FL 33744 • 727-398-6661 x14925 •
jacob.eastman@va.gov

EDUCATION

Year	Degree	Institution
2005 – 2008	Residency, Emergency Medicine	Eastern Virginia Medical School
2001 – 2005	Doctor of Medicine	University of Kansas School of Medicine
1997 – 2001	B.S. Cellular Biology (Honors)	University of Kansas

CERTIFICATION & LICENSURE

- Diplomate, American Board of Emergency Medicine (ABEM), 2009 – present
- Florida Medical License # ME100729, 2008 – present
- ACLS, ATLS – current

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

- 2017 – present Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine, University of Central Florida COM
- 2010 – present Collaborative Assistant Professor, Emergency Medicine, USF Morsani COM

CLINICAL APPOINTMENTS

- 2008 – present Attending Emergency Physician, Tampa General Hospital
- 2014 – present Attending Emergency Physician, C.W. Bill Young VA Health Care System
- 2012 – 2014 Attending Emergency Physician, Palms of Pasadena Hospital
- 2008 – 2010 Attending Emergency Physician, Brandon Regional Hospital

ADMINISTRATIVE LEADERSHIP & QUALITY IMPROVEMENT

- 2018 – 2023 Trauma Liaison, Tampa General Hospital – Participated in inter-department performance improvement; contributed to two ACS Level I trauma re-verifications.
- 2018 – 2019 Associate Medical Director, Adult ED (TEAMHealth) – Implemented 20-bed Clinical Decision Unit (observation LOS ↓ 33 h → 29 h); spearheaded surge plan; improved nurse-physician collaboration to top departmental engagement score.
- 2018 ED Throughput Initiative – Door-to-Doc median ↓ 19 min; LWBS ↓ 61 %.

TEACHING & MENTORSHIP

- Bedside Clinical Educator (2008 – present) – 500–600 h/year supervising EM residents and medical students at Tampa General Hospital and Bay Pines VAMC.
- Core instruction: resuscitation leadership, trauma team training, ultrasound-guided procedures, airway management.
- Central Venous Access Workshop Instructor, USF CAMLS (2011 – 2014)
- Prior Didactic Presentations (through 2022) – list available upon request; topics include ED fracture management, high-risk dermatologic emergencies, neuroimaging pitfalls, etc.

SCHOLARLY EXPERIENCE

- Sub-Investigator, multiple EM clinical trials at Tampa General Hospital (2014 – 2023).
- Resident Research Award – John P. McDade Award, Virginia College of Emergency Physicians (2006).
- Legacy projects: adult sternal intraosseous access feasibility; OSA risk recognition in ED (abstracts on request).

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION

Maintains > 50 AMA PRA Category 1 credits annually, concentrated on trauma resuscitation, bedside ultrasound, and medical education best practices.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

- Member, Epic Clinical Best Practice Process Team, Tampa General (2010 – 2011)
- Former Vice-President, Association of Residents, EVMS (2005 – 2008)

CLINICAL PROCEDURES

- Advanced airway (VL, cricothyrotomy)
- e-FAST & cardiac POCUS
- Central & arterial line placement
- Tube thoracostomy
- Pericardiocentesis

REFERENCES

Available upon request