Description & Comments

(What is it, any issues found, is there a financial impact to current/next FY, does this contract vary from previous FY, etc.)

The Human Services Department requests that the County Administrator approve and sign this "Cooperative Agreement to Benefit Homeless Individuals" grant application with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The application requests $800,000 per year for a 3-year grant project period starting 9/1/2016 and ending 8/31/2019. The purpose of this supplemental grant funding is to provide evidence based mental health and substance abuse treatment for homeless individuals.

This application is due 3/15/2016, and no match is required. Expanded program expenses and grant revenue were not included in the FY16 Budget. If awarded, a budget resolution may be needed for the last month of FY16.
