

PPLC Connects Communities

PPLC

Pinellas Public Library Cooperative

PPLC Connects Communities

- Strengthens Community Engagement
- Builds Community Partners
- Leads Services for Blind and Deaf Communities
- Champions Lifelong Learning
- Improves Organizational Excellence
- Supports Growth and collaboration between Member Libraries

PPLC Strengthens Community Engagement

- PPLC connects libraries, museums, and archives to community members to develop or enhance a collective sense of place where everyone can feel respected and included.
- PPLC enables these institutions and their partners to foster dialogue that addresses and incorporates diverse community needs and experiences.

PPLC Builds Community Partners

The Lighthouse for the Blind

National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled

Optimist Club of St. Petersburg

Pinellas Race Equity Leadership Council

READ Pinellas

Sarasota Public Library System

Sorenson Communications

Tampa Bay Rays – Reading with the Rays

Tampa Bay Times – Newspaper in Education

Tampa Bay Ukulele Society

The Florida Orchestra

United Way Suncoast

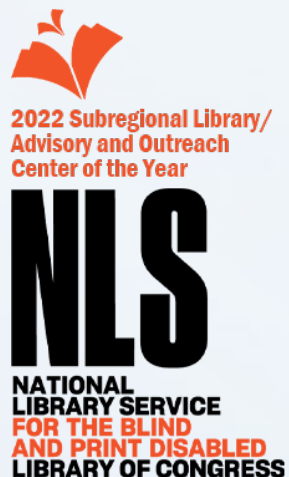

Museum Partners

Dunedin History Museum

Florida Holocaust Museum

Great Explorations Children's Museum

Henry B. Plant Museum

PPLC Leads Services for the Blind and Deaf Communities

- The Talking Book Library provides audio, braille, and large print books to blind and print disabled residents of Pinellas County.
- The Deaf Literacy Center provides classes, events, and individualized assistance to deaf residents and their families.

PPLC Champions Lifelong Learning

- Libraries, museums, and archives are unparalleled sources of educational, information, health, job, and cultural resources.
- PPLC supports these institutions' work to open themselves up to all community members and bridges gaps with PPLC Member Libraries.

PPLC Improves Organizational Excellence

- Steadily improving all policies and procedures
- Integrated Library System (ILS) Policy
- Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Policy

PPLC Supports Growth and Collaboration with Member Libraries

- Overdue fine free as of 10.1.21
- Surviving the Covid pandemic
- Promoting library services countywide

PPLC

Pinellas Public Library Cooperative

