Local Options (with defined revenues)

Total net cost to County General Fund for Local Options: $344,040.

- The Behavioral Evaluation program in the Judiciary budget is supported by a grant from the Juvenile Welfare Board.
- The Teen Court and Juvenile Arbitration programs in the Judiciary budget have two dedicated funding sources: a $3 delinquency case fee and a portion of the $65 Court Fee.
- The $65 Court Fee revenue is split into four dedicated categories: Juvenile Alternatives, Legal Aid, Law Libraries, and Court Innovations.
- The Law Library is part of the Judiciary budget and is almost entirely supported by its share of the $65 Court Fee and a small amount of revenue from copying charges.
- The County spends more on Legal Aid than the $65 fee generates. Legal Aid is budgeted in the Human Services Department.

ARTICLE V, REVISION 7

Total net cost to County General Fund for Court Innovations and Local Options: $850,410.

These programs include the Drug Court, Court Counsel, Truancy Prevention, and Domestic Violence Prevention. The recurring source of revenue for these programs is the $65 Court Fee dedicated to Court Innovations. In FY16, there are also grants to support the Domestic Violence Prevention initiative and some Drug Court expenses.

The other source of funding is the accumulated carry-forward funds from prior years' unused $65 Court Fees, which become available for Court Innovations programs.
