

Penny IV - Proposed County Distributions by Category

The county allocation % by category excludes countywide investments and is subject to change because the priorities and needs, as defined by the community, may change over the 13-year span between today and the end of Penny IV in 2030. Also, the intent is to adopt a portfolio management approach to project priorities, resulting in projects that span multiple categories.