I was called upon to speak but had a poor connection. I apologize. I was told to submit my comments via this page. I am the Secretary/Treasurer of the St. Petersburg Civitan Club and manage the Civitan Beach House at 18604 Gulf Blvd Indian Shores FL. We are a non profit organization supporting folks with developmental disadvantages. The Civitan Beach House is a members only venue that we also rent out to the public for weddings, Celebrations of Life etc. Sheriff Gualtieri commented that community centers are ok to be open and also country clubs that serve food. My question is can we allow events and member access as long as they don't exceed the 25% capacity limit and abide by all other social distancing guidelines? It seems as we fit what he was talking about. Please clarify. Thank you!
