Dave, regarding the advertisement, as long as the meeting location/format is correct for what they are planning, which it sounds like it is, the ad should be fine, with the following note. The "title" section, the part in all caps that gets added to the advertisement, has been updated in this final draft and needs to be updated in the advertisement. I do not know of any other reason to change the standard advertisement form.

Hi David,

Thanks for the update.

Just note that the deadline for this meeting is July 2nd. I know that we are off on Friday 7/3 so I can wait until Monday 7/6 if you need it. I just can't go passed that day. Also, the meeting will be both in-person and virtual.

I do recommend that you review the approvers and only add essential staff. You do need to change the reviewers that are not actual names. Otherwise, the file will stay stagnant and you will lose time.

I hope this helps.

Jo

Dave, regarding the advertisement, as long as the meeting location/format is correct for what they are planning, which it sounds like it is, the ad should be fine, with the following note. The "title" section, the part in all caps that gets added to the advertisement, has been updated in this final draft and needs to be updated in the advertisement. I do not know of any other reason to change the standard advertisement form.

Hi David,

Thanks for the update.

Just note that the deadline for this meeting is July 2nd. I know that we are off on Friday 7/3 so I can wait until Monday 7/6 if you need it. I just can't go passed that day. Also, the meeting will be both in-person and virtual.

I do recommend that you review the approvers and only add essential staff. You do need to change the reviewers that are not actual names. Otherwise, the file will stay stagnant and you will lose time.

I hope this helps.
