Summary:

In their May 30, 2018 complaint, Complainants Michael and Marinela Velasquez filed a charge of housing discrimination with the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD) alleging they were subjected to unlawful housing discrimination on the basis of disability and national origin. HUD referred the complaint to the Pinellas County Office of Human Rights (PCOHR) for investigation and processing. Following the investigation, on October 26, 2018, PCOHR issued a finding of cause that Complainants were victims of housing discrimination based on national origin and handicap status, in violation of Chapter 70 of the Pinellas County Code and the FHAA, including, but not limited to, 42 U.S.C. § 3604(a) and § 3604(f). Attempts to conciliate the matter were unsuccessful. In accordance with Sections 70-146 and 70-147 of the Pinellas County Code, the County Attorney’s Office is required to file a civil action on behalf of an aggrieved party seeking appropriate relief and if a timely election is not made to have the charge decided in a civil action, the County Attorney’s office shall provide legal representation in an administrative hearing.
