Summary:

The Board of County Commissioners (Board) amended Chapter 70 of the Pinellas County Code (Code) on March 7, 2017, to create the County Council for Persons with Disabilities (Council) to help identify issues of accessibility to County facilities, programs and services, as well as potential issues of discrimination impacting person with disabilities. Following the format of other ordinances, which have created similar boards, this ordinance names the County Administrator, the County Attorney, and the Director of Human Rights as “ex-Officio” members. In doing so, it makes it impossible for these officials to discuss business that may arise before the Council without violating “government in the sunshine” principles. Therefore, staff recommends amending this section to remove these officials as “ex-Officio” members of the Council so that they may discuss Council business between themselves, and with individual board members, as may be necessary.

Background Information:

The Board approved amending Chapter 70 of the Code relating to Human Relations to create this advisory board on March 7, 2017.

The request for authority to advertise this proposed amendment was approved by the Board on October 31, 2017.
