Summary:

In their June 24, 2015 complaint, Bradley and Valerie Yourth filed a charge of housing discrimination with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) alleging Valerie Yourth was subjected to unlawful housing discrimination on the basis of her handicap. Specifically, Respondents' denial of Complainants' request to make a reasonable accommodation in their rules, policies, practices or services by failing to use "free and clear" cleaning solutions in the common elements. Following that investigation, on July 16, 2016, the Office of Human Rights issued a finding of reasonable cause to believe that Valerie Yourth was a victim of housing discrimination based on her handicap, in violation of the FHAA, 42 U.S.C. § 3604(f)(1)(A) and § 3604(f)(3)(B). Attempts to conciliate the matter were unsuccessful. In accordance with Section 70-146 and 70-147 of the Pinellas County Code, the County Attorney's Office is required to file a civil action on behalf of an aggrieved party seeking appropriate relief and if a timely election is not made to have the charge decided in a civil action, the County Attorney's office shall provide legal representation in an administrative hearing.
