Summary:

On July 27, 2023, Complainant Deborah Jackson filed a housing discrimination charge with the Pinellas County Office of Human Rights (PCOHR) alleging Complainant was subjected to unlawful housing discrimination on the bases of race, color and discriminatory terms, conditions, privileges or services and facilities under the Fair Housing Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. §3601, et. seq.). Specifically, Respondents imposed unfavorable terms and conditions on Complainant’s tenancy including repeated three-day letters for non-payment when Complainant was not delinquent, and Respondents’ refusal to make minor repairs on Complainant’s unit. These unfavorable terms were not imposed on similarly situated tenants. Following their investigation, on October 30, 2023, PCOHR issued a finding of reasonable cause to believe that Deborah Jackson was a victim of discriminatory housing practice on the basis of race and color in violation of Chapter 70 of the Pinellas County Code and the Fair Housing Act, as amended. Attempts to conciliate the matter were unsuccessful.

In accordance with Sections 70-146 and 70-147 of the Pinellas County Code, the County Attorney’s Office is required to file a civil action on behalf of an aggrieved party seeking appropriate relief, and if a timely election is not made, to have the charge decided in a civil action.

Background Information:

The Determination issued by the PCOHR setting forth the facts and applicable law that led to the reasonable cause determination is attached, as well as the Final Investigative Report.

Fiscal Impact:

Unknown.
