Summary:

On April 3, 2023, Complainant Carolyn Pulido filed a housing discrimination charge with the Pinellas County Office of Human Rights (PCOHR) alleging Complainant was subjected to unlawful housing discrimination on the basis of disability for failure to make a reasonable accommodation under the Fair Housing Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. §3601, et. seq.). Specifically, Respondents denial of Complainant’s request to accommodate her disability by permitting her storage of her tricycle in the facility’s bike storage room. Following their investigation, on July 10, 2023, PCOHR issued a finding of reasonable cause to believe that Carolyn Pulido was a victim of housing discrimination based on failure to make reasonable accommodation in violation of Chapter 70 of the Pinellas County Code and the Fair Housing Act, as amended. Attempts to conciliate the matter were unsuccessful.

In accordance with Sections 70-146 and 70-147 of the Pinellas County Code, the County Attorney’s Office is required to file a civil action on behalf of an aggrieved party seeking appropriate relief, and if a timely election is not made, to have the charge decided in a civil action.
