Summary:

On May 13, 2019, Complainant Francis Dandrea filed a charge of housing discrimination with the Pinellas County Office of Human Rights (PCOHR) on behalf of himself and his wife Dolores Dandrea alleging Complainant was subjected to unlawful housing discrimination on the basis of disability. Specifically, Respondent’s denial of Complainant’s request of reasonable accommodation to use the washer and dryer unit in his unit for medical reasons. Following that investigation, on June 26, 2019, PCOHR issued a finding of reasonable cause to believe that Francis Dandrea was a victim of housing discrimination based on disability, in violation of Chapter 70 of the Pinellas County Code and the FHAA, including, but not limited to, Sec. 804(f)(3)(B), 42 U.S.C. § 3604. Attempts to conciliate the matter were unsuccessful.

In accordance with Section 70-146 and 70-147 of the Pinellas County Code, the County Attorney’s Office is required to file a civil action on behalf of an aggrieved party seeking appropriate relief and if a timely election is not made to have the charge decided in a civil action.

Background Information:

The Determination issued by PCOHR setting forth the facts and applicable law that led to the reasonable cause determination is attached, as is the Final Investigative Report.
