Summary:

On August 5, 2022, Complainant Brenda Hughes filed a housing discrimination charge with the Pinellas County Office of Human Rights (PCOHR) alleging Complainant was subjected to unlawful housing discrimination on the bases of disability: for failure to make a reasonable accommodation and failure to permit a reasonable modification under the Fair Housing Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. §3601, et seq.). Specifically, Respondents denial of Complainant’s request to accommodate her disability by permitting the installation of a ramp in front of her dwelling without compromising her parking space or safety and Respondents’ failure to accept the reasonable modification from a ramp to a lift (because of municipal restrictions) to allow construction to proceed so Complainant would have access to her home. Following their investigation on April 7, 2023, PCOHR issued a finding of reasonable cause to believe that Brenda Hughes was a victim of housing discrimination based on failure to make reasonable accommodation and failure to permit reasonable modification, in violation of Chapter 70 of the Pinellas County Code and the Fair Housing Act, as amended. Attempts to conciliate the matter were unsuccessful.

In accordance with Sections 70-146 and 70-147 of the Pinellas County Code, the County Attorney’s Office is required to file a civil action on behalf of an aggrieved party seeking appropriate relief, and if a timely election is not made, to have the charge decided in a civil action.
