Pinellas County, along with the Florida cities and counties, agreed to the Florida Opioid Allocation and statewide response agreement (the "Florida Plan") with the State of Florida, which governs the allocation and use of opioid litigation settlement proceeds.

The Regional Fund is distributed to Pinellas County government as a Qualified County under the Florida Plan.

Under the Florida Plan, and in collaboration with the City of Clearwater, Pinellas Park, St. Petersburg, and Department of Health established the OAFAB.
