Summary:

On November 19, 2018, Complainant Patrick Bergy, a disabled veteran, filed a charge of housing discrimination with the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD) alleging that Complainant and his minor children were subjected to unlawful housing discrimination on the basis of familial status and disability discrimination due to denial of reasonable accommodation. HUD referred the complaint to the Pinellas County Office of Human Rights (PCOHR) for investigation and processing. On April 8, 2019, following that investigation, PCOHR issued a finding of reasonable cause to believe that Patrick Bergy was a victim of housing discrimination based on familial status, in violation of Chapter 70 of the Pinellas County Code and the FHAA, including, but not limited to, 42 U.S.C. 3617, Sec. 804b and c. However, no cause was found on the allegation of denial of reasonable accommodation due to Complainant's disability. Attempts to conciliate the matter were unsuccessful.

In accordance with Sections 70-146 and 70-147 of the Pinellas County Code, the County Attorney's Office is required to file a civil action on behalf of an aggrieved party seeking appropriate relief and if a timely election is not made to have the charge decided in a civil action.
